Our Mission Statement

We commit ourselves to implementing dynamic evangelization programs to enlighten people in the Christian faith and values, recognizing and identifying the needs of the local larger community and to reach out and address them through meaningful service, and fostering unity and enriching the unique gifts of our dynamic multicultural communities of the Lower Eastside. We are a multicultural community rooted in the Catholic faith, ministering to diverse neighborhoods, on a pilgrimage towards the fullness of life.

Baptism:

2nd Saturday of the month

Congratulations on the birth of your child! We, with you, thank our Gracious God for the gift of your child. We thank you for bringing your child to be baptized into the Catholic faith.

Parents

Because of the natural relationship, parents have the most important role in the Baptism and life of their child. You along with God, co-created a human life and now seek to have your child as a member of God's Church. You are accepting for your child, the rights and privileges, as well as the obligations, of Roman Catholics. Therefore, it is imperative that you raise your child as an active member of God's Family, that is the Church. After the celebration of the Sacrament, it is the responsibility of the parents, in their gratitude to God and in fidelity to the duty they have undertaken, to enable their child to know God, whose adopted child they have become, to receive confirmation, and to participate in the Holy Eucharist.

REFLECTIONS

*Jesus today brings us a step closer to the synthesis: The love with which we do any good deed flows from an awareness of God's love for us, expressed perfectly in the cross.

*So far we have seen that the purpose of our existence is not so much to do deeds, but what matters, the love we put into them.

*Today Jesus places those acts of love in an extraordinary context.

*Jesus wants us to step out of ourselves and see things from God's perspective.

*Jesus tells us to do good not only to lovable people, but even to human toothaches. We see that care in Jesus who forgives those responsible for humiliating and torturing him.

*"He makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and unjust."

*When we glimpse on how God sees us and still loves us, we can begin to have some sense on how we are to see that person we find so difficult.

Communication and Media

Internet is the greatest source to reach the parishioners with ease. The Archdiocese of New York understands this mode of communications as it gives us several websites to know what is going on in the Archdiocese and things that will be helpful for the people of God.

We all want to know the daily readings and in particular the Sunday's readings . The Archdiocese calls us to use these great sites that are available in English and Spanish. THE USCCB THAT IS THE UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS gives us READINGS AND REFLECTIONS in both written and video form. We can all make use of the genuine sites in internet.

REFLEXIONES

* Jesús hoy nos lleva un paso más cerca a la síntesis: el amor con que hacemos cualquier obra buena fluye desde la conciencia del amor de Dios para nosotros, expresado perfectamente en la cruz.

* Hasta ahora hemos visto que el objetivo de nuestra existencia no es tanto para realizar obras, pero lo que importa, el amor que ponemos en ellas.

* Hoy Jesús sitúa a estos actos de amor en un contexto extraordinario.

* Jesús quiere que salgamos de nosotros mismos y ver las cosas desde la perspectiva de Dios.

* "Hace salir su sol sobre los malos y buenos, y hace llover sobre los justos e injustos."

* Al ver cómo Dios nos ve y aún nos ama, podemos comenzar a tener una idea de cómo vamos a ver a esas personas difíciles.
